Parental Responsibility

This is defined in law as being all the rights, duties, powers and responsibilities and authority, which by law a parent of a child has in relation to the child and his/her property.

Parents with parental responsibility include the following: -

- a) The child's birth mother.
- b) The natural father, if he was married to the mother at the time of birth, or they got married after that date but before the child's 16th birthday (parental responsibility is only lost through adoption or death).
- c) The father if the parents were not married at the time of the child's birth, but only
 - i) Through a court order
 - ii) By agreement with the mother under a prescribed form of agreement under the Children Act (not just any form of agreement)
 - iii) By acquisition of parental responsibility by being registered or re-registered as the child's father on the birth Certificate.
- d) A person who has been granted a residence order by the court for the duration of that order.
- e) The child's appointed guardian or the child's adoptive parents.
- f) A local authority if the child is in care.
- g) Anyone else granted parental responsibility under a court order.
